Lesson #4-20
John 3:1-21

Last Week

Last week Jesus chases the moneychangers out of the temple, and makes a prophecy about his own resurrection.

This Week

This week the story of Nicodemus introduced a series looking at the abundant life spoken of by Jesus in the Gospel of John.

Story Summary

Nicodemus was a learned man, yet he had many questions about who Jesus was and the news that Jesus had to share. His nighttime visit is a sign of this confusion; he was literally and figuratively “in the dark.” Nicodemus came looking for more proof of who Jesus really was as well as what that meant for him and other believers. Yet Jesus’ answers were unclear. After all the confusion Nicodemus experiences, he was finally silent when he hears Jesus’ words of promise: “For God so loved the world that he gave his only Son...” (John 3:16)

Practice: Fellowship

Because the good news shared with Nicodemus is life changing, we repeat it to one another often, both in words and in how we care for one another. Students already understand the importance of relationships among their families and friends. Use the Love Mail Boxes to continue looking for ways to care for and support one another.

The Point

Even those who have difficulty with Jesus’ message and ministry have a place in God’s story.

Bible Nuts & Bolts

Images of God

God is so much more than our human minds can comprehend. Because our language is inadequate to fully convey who God is, we turn to metaphors that describe single components of God. Using a wide variety of images, such as those found in scripture, help us to understand more completely the fullness of God.

Next Week

Next week the story of the woman at the well shows that everyone is welcome in Jesus’ abundant love.
